THE BACKING OF MONEY

A so called philosopher once said: "If the rich do not spend the poor die of hunger that brought on the French Revolu tion Saving is spending, but it is for the future rather than for the present. It causes the production of permanent goods rather than the mere satisfaction of transient and temporary pleasures.

The trouble is that people confuse money with what is back of it. They see that spending increases trade, but fall to see that investing money increases trade just as much. Perhaps you never stopped to realize that every time you deposit a dollar in a bank or invest it in some legitimate enterprise you not only belp some to get and keep a job; but a useful job Every dollar you bank or lovest provides work for

It is sometimes said in favor of one of the larger excesses jewelry that PIES AND CAKES is, people think that they will be able to sell their jewels if they cannot afford to keep them. But saide from the fact that I don't believe that anyone ever sold a ring, or pin, or expensive watch for as much as he or she paid for it, there is the further fact that money invested in jewelry earns no interest.

Extravagance brings in no return. Money saved is not only kept, but it continues to work for its owner. The earning power of money which is spent is given up for all time. It is destroyed - How to Get Ahead.

TURN RIGHT

or harder, or more painful than the road to failure, but there is a differ-Nail With an Apple ence; we voluntarily choose to hear the pains of success, while the pains of falling are themselves. The pains ence; we voluntarily choose to hear the failure are thrust upon us. The pains of success are mental and physical as are those of fatlure.

The boy or girl who aspires to suc ceed in school pays a daily penalty in the act of resisting the impulses to enjoy pleasures of the moment; in force ing the brain to exercise when it is erying to quit; in doing daily mental tasks which are just as tiring as any physical labor. The man who succeeds pays his penalty, too. He must save when he would like to spend. He must work when he would like to loaf. He must be up and doing when he would like to sleep. He must take sicks and not hick back. He must assume respon-sibilities when he dislikes to add to his burdens. He must be patient when his nature is to be imputient. He must bring his appetite to reason when it calls to be unreasonable. All of us know men who want to succeed, but we know that they cannot because they will pay the penalties of failure; they cannot avoid them although they think they can. They will pay and pay hard. The penaltics of success are suffered for the most part in early years. The penal-ties of failure are reaped to later years when the rewards of success are being plucked. The Furtura Magazine.

WILLIAM RUSSELL IN

"EASTWARD HO!

William Russell is a real human and although he is a high salaried motion picture star, he nevertheless has hobbles that are quite like those of the average warm-hearted warm-blooded human. His primary hobby is his home-if this may be called a hobby-and he is said to other years the record for extreme have a very beautiful one, to which cold was established at 2 degrees he devotes considerable time, on for February, so there is not much the west coast. His other hobby is cause for complaint, athletics. He is in constant training for the sake of his physical well-being as well as for the sake of his professional work.
